The Central Coast Model Railroad group at the Museum wishes to thank those who contributed to construction of the Cuesta grade portion of our SP model. Track laying has reached Santa Margarita and we are now starting the hills and tunnels on the route. The goal is to have trains operating that far by May 5th, SLO Train Day. A model of the Atascadero Depot, seen above, will be built with a contribution from Richard Strahl. The modeling crew includes Andrew Merriam, John Marchetti, Paul Edwards, Pat Cully and Jay Weise.

HEROINES OF THE RAILS
for WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH
Saturday, March 24, at 3:00 p.m.

We'll have a short presentation on Women in Railroading, followed by a collection of vintage films with heroines of the rails, all included with museum admission.

$5 for Adults and $3 for Kids 4 to 15

We wish to thank the family of Don Loats, shown above with his fantasy holiday village. Don passed away recently, and his daughter, Andrea Reiswig, has donated a large number of model structures and ornamental trees to be used on the Southern Pacific model in the Museum.
